

ourtowns

WINNERS

Compiled by Michael Ebert

Anthony Marano Judge

Anthony Marano of Valley Stream received the 2010 Norman F. Lent Memorial Award from the Criminal Courts Bar Association of Nassau County for his dedication to and leadership in the county court system. He was first elected as a county judge in 1992 after 20 years as a private practitioner and was appointed administrative judge of Nassau County in 2004. Marano has also served as president of the county's District Court Judges Association and was elected to the New York State Supreme Court in 1999.

Dennis Sullivan Professor

Dennis Sullivan of East Setauket received the Wolf Prize in mathematics and $100,000 for contributions to algebraic topology and conformal dynamics from the Wolf Foundation, a nonprofit that funds research in science, math and the arts. A math professor at Stony Brook

Sonia Murdock Nonprofit director

Sonia Murdock of Islandia has been inducted into the Suffolk County Women's Hall of Fame for her efforts to help families with perinatal mood disorders. She is co-founder and executive director of the West Islip-based Postpartum Resource Center for New York, a nonprofit providing support to depressed mothers. Murdock also is past president of Postpartum Support International and a member of task forces for the Suffolk Perinatal Coalition and Nassau County Perinatal Services Network.

Lyn D. Weiss Hospital chairwoman

Lyn D. Weiss of Jericho received the Dr. Frank L. Babott Memorial Award from the Alumni Association of the College of Medicine at SUNY Downstate Medical Center for service to the medical profession. She is chair of the physical medicine and rehabil-